Off the beaten path

The oldest Hawaiian island is an adventurer’s dream with tropical rainforests, rivers and waterfalls. See where many popular movies have been filmed in Hanapēpē Town, “Kaua‘i’s biggest little town.” Take a walk on the “Hanapēpē Swinging Bridge,” which is a fun adventure to cross all on its own. Have you heard of Wailua Falls? It’s a double-barreled waterfall and is one of the most spectacular sights on the island as well as easily-accessible.

Fun Fact:
Kaua‘i has the only navigable rivers in Hawai‘i and Wailua is one of the most popular.
See why Waimea Canyon is described as “The Grand Canyon of the Pacific”

Discover the Nāpali Coast, lined with cliffs, waterfalls and sea caves only accessible by foot, sea or air

Hike the trails of kōke’e State Park and zipline above its lush valleys

Enjoy championship golfing or just lounge on the beach

Activities:
Kaua’i is full of natural wonders that you won’t want to miss.

ISLAND OF HAWAIʻI

Grab a cup of Kona coffee, and let’s get going

The entire family will enjoy a day exploring Hawaiʻi Volcanoes National Park where they can see a live volcano, scalded deserts, rainforests, vent holes and walk through a lava tube. There are also 150 miles of hiking trails and a museum. Most waterfalls can be found on the slopes of the Mauna Kea volcano close to Hilo and on the Hāmākua coast. Plus, farmers markets are a little-known gems of the Island of Hawaiʻi. They are spread over the whole island and allow visitors to meet locals, shop for arts and crafts and enjoy edible treasures. Don’t leave Hawaiʻi without seeing one of the famous black sand beaches.

Fun Fact:
The Hawaiʻi Volcanoes National Park is home to Kīlauea Volcano, one of the world’s most active volcanoes.
Activities:
Visitors are drawn to the Island of Hawai‘i due to the natural beauty.

- Swim with the manta rays, view underwater life from a submarine or enjoy a sunset dinner cruise
- Venture in the calm, clear waters of Kealekekua Bay to snorkel, dive or spot dolphins and sea turtles
- Visit ancient petroglyphs

Unspoiled beauty

Experience the untouched beauty of Molokaʻi and surround yourself with the mana (power) that protects the island. From the west, you can see the city lights glowing from Honolulu. Or visit the harbor town of Kaunakakai, where there’s no traffic lights and fisherman reel in their daily catch.

An island of intriguing contrasts and the smallest inhabited island, Lānaʻi welcomes you with untouched tranquility. Capture an unforgettable sunset at the iconic Puʻu Pehe, Sweetheart Rock or hike the lunar landscape of Keahiakawelo (Garden of the Gods).

For a list of our select hotels in Lānaʻi and Molokaʻi, ask your travel professional for details.
Let Blue Sky Tours take you there.

Blue Sky Tours have been experts in selling custom designed vacation packages to Hawai‘i and the South Pacific since 1981. We take every measure to ensure our island guests feel like a part of our ō‘ohana. There are a number of reasons to book with us but here are a few of our favorites:

• As Hawai‘i destination experts, we provide in depth knowledge about Hawai‘i products including airlines, hotels and condominiums, cars and activities.
• Enjoy “peace of mind” knowing your vacation is covered with our protection waiver and during-travel insurance.
• Variety is the spice of life, and Blue Sky Tours offers over 175 hotel and condo options along with plenty of flights, rental cars and activities to choose from.

• Hawai‘i has an island for everyone, so let Blue Sky Tours help you share “The Aloha Spirit” with friends, family or co-workers. Whether it’s destination weddings, corporate events or a group set on adventure, the island life brings groups of all shapes and sizes closer together.
Aloha is not just a word meaning hello and goodbye, it’s a way of life that’s present in all who live in and visit Hawai’i. Whether it’s your first time visiting, or you are a returning guest, the islands of Hawai’i will leave you renewed and rejuvenated.
