American Music Cruise
The great rivers of America once carried more than just the sounds of steam whistles, churning paddlewheels and splashing waters, as they also served as conduits for spreading the music of a new nation wherever the waters flowed. Discover the sights and sounds of America’s rivers and the roots from which sprung a variety of musical genres as you enjoy special onboard entertainment and focused lectures highlighting the music of the regions through which you are traveling. Whether it is the sound of New Orleans “Dixieland” Jazz, the strains of the uniquely American musical art form the Delta Blues - one of the earliest styles of blues music hailing from the Mississippi Delta, the Rock and Soul of Memphis, or the homegrown Country Music melodies from Nashville, it all harmonizes with the rhythms of the river.

Antebellum South
Experience authentic Southern culture as you journey through living history along the Lower Mississippi River where it is easy to imagine that time has stood still. From the early 1800’s until the Civil War, the country’s economy began shifting and a cotton boom made plantations the center of southern commerce. With its rich soil, warm climate and ample moisture, the land is among the most fertile in the world and agriculture flourishes. From New Orleans to Baton Rouge, all along the Great River Road, sugar cane is still grown as it was a century ago. In the late 1800’s Mark Twain noted on his adventures down the mighty Mississippi that there were so many plantations and dwellings along the river that is looked like a spacious street. Towering homes lay nestled in large patches of moss-draped oak trees and still today, you can catch a glimpse of what Mark Twain once saw as you cruise along the River and then tour the historic locations and iconic plantation homes.

Bourbon
Our Bourbon themed cruise offers you a rare opportunity to experience an extraordinary journey through America’s heartland and into the roots of Kentucky’s bourbon region. We will take you behind the scenes and into the history books to show you where bourbon comes from, how it is made and the ways to distinguish the unique characteristics of different distilleries. While onboard, you can enjoy all things bourbon with special tastings, treats, and cooking demonstrations. Both onboard and ashore, each day presents an eclectic blend of music, creative workshops and a wealth of enrichment that can’t be found anywhere else. This dynamic blend of historic discovery, toe-tapping entertainment and complimentary tours of the finest bourbon distilleries creates a uniquely American river cruise that you simply cannot afford to miss!

Civil War
Journey through “the havoc of war and the battle’s confusion” where historic skirmishes pitted brother against brother in a nation once divided. You will have the opportunity to delve into the tactics, both military and political, that shaped the events of the American Civil War. Learn of the Mississippi River’s strategic value as both a transportation and communication route and explore the state of the country as it was in 1866 and how it still affects us today. Watch tribute artists bring key figures to life and listen to distinguished Civil War historians offer enlightening lectures on a multitude of Civil War topics. Join us for a thought-provoking journey designed to broaden your knowledge and provide insight surrounding the times and the causes that precipitated the conflict. Your heart will be touched and your knowledge enriched as you capture the poignancy of it all.

THE LOWER MISSISSIPPI RIVER

THE RIVER THAT DEFINES A NATION

The lower stretch of the Mississippi, from carefree New Orleans to vibrant Memphis, is the river of Legends - the river of centuries-old shaded oak trees, elegant antebellum plantations, cobblestone streets and Victorian mansions. Hear the river’s music in rock and roll, blues, jazz and zydeco and savor its culinary diversity with a host of distinctive Creole and Cajun delights.

Celebrate New Orleans’ unabashed and unapologetic joy in the fine restaurants and sidewalk cafes of the French Quarter, the jazz clubs lining Bourbon Street and the strolling musicians in Jackson Square. Music is also the heart and soul of Memphis – from Elvis’ inspiring Graceland to the blues joints of Beale Street. The city’s National Civil Rights Museum chronicles a long journey to freedom and the Stax Museum of American Soul Music records the rise of a beloved musical art form.

Between these glittering cities is a necklace of traditional plantations and homes. The flowers, fountains and pathways found on Nottoway Plantation are a testament to the Louisiana way of life before the Civil War. Mississippi’s Natchez captivates with its impressive preservation of history that shines in the lovingly restored homes of Magnolia Hall, Rosalie Mansion and the William Johnson House.

Thousands of tombstones which mark the fallen in Vicksburg, Mississippi, reflect the tragic sacrifices of the Civil War. French Canadian fur trappers defined Cajun culture in bold Baton Rouge, Louisiana, while the lost settlement of Bayou Sara below the bluffs of St. Francisville, Louisiana, was once the busiest pre-Civil War port between New Orleans and Memphis.

Inhale the sweet fragrance of magnolia blossoms, relax in a rocking chair with a glass of sweet tea and watch the essence of the south unfold around you.

THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI & ILLINOIS RIVERS

TREASURES OF SUMMER AND COLORS OF AUTUMN

The upper reaches of the Mississippi River from dynamic St. Louis to beautiful Red Wing and St. Paul are rich with frontier tales of fur traders and pioneers set among picturesque geography and abundant wildlife. As you cruise along the Illinois River from the artistic and architectural splendors of Chicago, hidden gems around each bend fuel your sense of discovery as the very best of America's heartland unfolds before you.

St. Louis was the hub for riverboats traveling along the Mississippi and the jumping-off point for exploration and settlement of the West. Today, that heritage is reflected in the shining stainless steel Gateway Arch that curves above the skyline and in the Jefferson National Expansion Memorial that lies beneath.

Perhaps no person defined America’s view of its greatest river more than Mark Twain. Tom Sawyer, Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher are alive and well in Hannibal, Missouri, Samuel Clemens’ boyhood home. Bettendorf, Iowa is the starting point of Quad Cities exploration where you will uncover the intriguing evolution of five individual, yet unified, communities.

Experience Old Nauvoo, a peaceful place of beauty along the Mississippi River, founded by early members of today’s Mormon community. As one of our nation’s premier historic communities with over 30 beautiful sites dating back to the 1839-1846 time period, there is an abundance of history just waiting to be shared with visitors.

In Wisconsin and Minnesota, wildlife takes center stage. View an impressive population of bald eagles on an eco cruise from Red Wing or at the National Eagle Center in nearby Wabasha. Let the seasons guide your travels as the fragrant flowerboxes of summer give way to the autumnal colors of fall.
