HISTORICAL BUILDING

The fascinating history of this palace begins in 1272 Originally it was an ecclesiastical compound that has hosted Crusaders, pilgrims and tourists for more than eight centuries.

THE PROJECT

The renovation project was curated by the studio of the internationally renowned architect, Patricia Urquiola, with the precise aim of creating an original and distinctive concept: a Venetian "house", deeply linked to the history of the city, which emerges in all its environments in the form of materials, colors, and finishes used.

SUITES AND ROOMS

The hotel consists largely of suites: 57 Suites and 9 Deluxe rooms, spread over three floors. Different suites have a view of the San Giorgio Maggiore Island, while 2 suites enjoy access to a private roof terrace overlooking the San Marco Basin. This is a unique location for exclusive aperitifs and dinners, with a stunning view of the extraordinary city of Venice.

CONTEMPORARY VENETIAN STYLE

Finishes and materials have been added to the original structure that give the environment a contemporary feel. Each decorative, architectural, or lighting element is the result of the work of skilled local craftsmen who combine the passion for their work with the secrets and techniques of the Venetian tradition.

GASTRONOMY

VERO Restaurant overlooks the shore with a breathtaking view of the lagoon, towards the island of San Giorgio Maggiore. The cuisine is inspired by the typical recipes of the Laguna, wisely revisited in a modern key, while respecting the seasonality of the raw materials, thanks also to the vegetable garden in the internal courtyard.

GASTRONOMY

ESSENTIA Restaurant is the ideal place for light and quick snacks that can also be enjoyed in the magnificent internal courtyard, a real oasis of relaxation.

ALCHEMIA Bar offers a drink list of great international classics which, together with those of Venetian history, are reinterpreted in a contemporary key.

FEELING AT HOME

Pura wellness area, an intimate and comfortable space to regenerate body and mind, with a wide choice of exclusive and personalized treatments and programs.

A spacious reading room, the ideal place to read a book or for a simple moment of relaxation.

"Ca' di Dio Guest Assistant" available to tailor unique experiences and itineraries designed on guests' preferences.

Besides the pedestrian entrance on the Lagoon, guests can easily reach the hotel by boat, thanks to the private dock.

HISTORICAL BUILDING

In 1642, the noblewoman Farnese, Camilla Savelli, commission the famous architect Francesco Borromini, with the creation of a convent, Santa Maria dei Sette Dolori with the adjacent church. The old cloister, the refectory, the roman cave, the entrance and all common areas highlight the details of the Baroque time, making the Donna Camilla Savelli a unique property.

THE CLOISTER

The 17th century central fountain and the elegant citrus grove is an ideal place for any kind of events and available to guests for a moment of relax, reading a book and enjoying the silence and tranquility of this magical place.

ROOMS

The 99 rooms are characterized by a refined and elegant style with antique and original furniture. All rooms offer a lovely view on either the roman rooftops and alleys or the historical cloister.

RESTAURANT

Il "Ferro e il Fuoco" restaurant offers a traditional gastronomic cuisine with a touch of innovation, with the curious and original Renaissance tasting menu. This is a very authentic visual, olfactory and tasting experience.

THE ROMAN CAVE

The underground area of the hotel hosts an ancient roman cave, dating back to the II century. It is a real hidden gem, perfect for small private dinners and wine tastings.

GRAN SALA BORROMINI

Made from the ancient refectory, the Gran Sala Borromini is embellished with paintings dating back to the Renaissance and Baroque time and a fountain attributed to Francesco Borromini at the entrance. Its elegant and sophisticated atmosphere makes it the perfect place for meetings, gala dinners and private events.

THE TERRACE

Guests can enjoy a breathtaking view of the rooftops of Trastevere and Rome from the wonderful terrace, that can also host private events.

THANK YOU!
